

29 December 1959

Honorable Robert C. Wilson
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Wilson:

During the absence of Mr. Dulles from the city, your letter of 22 December was referred to me. If agreeable with you, I believe we can evaluate the article enclosed in your letter more fully if we can meet with you. In this way we could utilize both classified and unclassified information to advise you more fully. With this in mind, I shall be in touch with you as soon as you return to Washington.

Thank you for your holiday greetings and I extend best wishes to you for the coming year.

Sincerely,

/s/

John S. Warner
Legislative Counsel
